

09:41 Briefing

Logistics/Resource Update

- Staggered starts by POU teams from Ottawa, York, RCMP, OPP, Toronto and Sudbury, Durham have begun in the region.
- Due to the level of aggression by protestors, POU and tactical teams are wearing helmets and carrying sticks.
- Continued support for frontline to ensure they are able to continue to maintain moral and posture.

Arrest Update

- Two arrests are made overnight
- 38 total vehicles were towed, consisting of 31 CNVs and 7 class E vehicles (Dump trucks, vans, etc).
- An OPP member suffered minor injuries in suspected hit and run which is being investigated by OPS.
- The processing of arrests has been streamlined by through buses and increased staffing at processing facilities.

Financial Seizures Update

- Banks have been receiving threats and are concerned with physical safety at their branches, they will be advised to contact POJs to
- PLTs informed that some truckers are leaving because their partner's no longer have access to accounts.

Criminal Intelligence Update

- There are concerns about 3 trucks and the possibility of access to firearms.
- Convoys in the area are currently being monitored but nothing significant has been reported.
- At 1400 the Eyes in the Sky will be mobilized
- In Saskatchewan, there is pressure at by 1000 protestors at the border.
- Smaller protests are occurring at other cities across Canada